

SUSTAINING EDUCATION FOR BURMESE REFUGEES

There are more than 90,000 refugees hosted in the nine refugee camps along Thailand's border with Myanmar. JRS focuses its mission in the 2 camps of Ban Mai Nai Soi and Ban Mae Surin in Mae Hong Son, Thailand.

These two camps host about 9825 people. JRS partners the Karenni Education Department (KnED) to implement and deliver educational services to 14 schools from kindergarten to secondary school levels. Over the years, the scope of education has increased to include vulnerable groups, such as out-of-school children and youth.
